

Call for Presentations 2022

Textile Discovery Summit

Papers are currently being solicited for subject areas listed below for the 2022 AATCC Textile Discovery Summit. This event will be held October 4-6, 2022, in Charlotte, NC USA. Interested individuals should complete the abstract submission form and provide an abstract of 125 words or less to: jabaraa@aatcc.org.

The program committee is soliciting abstracts for the following topics:

1. Fiber, fabric and materials innovations
2. Coloration (dyeing and printing) chemistry, application, process and machinery
3. Lighting trends and color management
4. Innovations in smart textiles, protective and performance fabrics
5. Testing for product performance and product claim validation
6. Addressing sustainability, environmental challenges throughout the supply chain
7. Achieving comfort and wellness through innovative technologies

Abstracts for oral presentations should be submitted by January 17, 2022 to Angela Jabara, at jabaraa@aatcc.org. AATCC reserves the right to accept, place on a waiting list, or reject any abstract for any reason.

Authors of accepted oral presentations will be notified. In accepting an invitation to present at the Summit, a speaker agrees to provide AATCC with the full text or PowerPoint presentation by August 30, 2022. Speakers receive complimentary registration for the conference.

Abstracts for poster presentations should clearly state the problem, solution, and results of the research work. Poster abstracts will be accepted until May 2, 2022, and should be submitted to Angela Jabara at jabaraa@aatcc.org. Poster presenters pay a reduced registration fee.
